

Please strongly review the Sinclair Group's attack on America's media responsibility. The blatant political agenda, literally forced on local television viewers is an assault on all that we know is good about our free airwaves. Please block this outrage in anyway possible. "Fair and balanced" should be more than just a ridiculous slap in the face of our nation.